Ed Asip

Ed Asip has over 40 years of Sales Management and Consulting experience delivering complex technology focused business solutions to Retail and Commercial Banks. He started his career working for The Chase Manhattan Bank as a Commercial Loan Officer. Semi-retired now, he is proud to be finishing his career working part time with Chase in the RVC Branch.

He holds a Bachelor of Science in Marketing from Boston College and an MBA in Finance and Banking from Adelphi University.

Ed is a lifelong resident of Rockville Centre and has always tried to contribute to the community in some way. Living within the Oceanside School District, Ed coached all three of his children in Soccer, Baseball, Softball and Basketball. Being closely connected to Oceanside through his children, he became a member of the Oceanside Kiwanis and the Oceanside Knights of Columbus. With his children grown, Ed was able to set his sights on serving in RVC. He joined the Lions Club in 2003 and served for 3 years as President from 2011 to 2013. During his tenure as President, the Lions Club joined the RVC Chamber of Commerce which has become a very successful collaboration through coordinated efforts in supporting and serving the overall RVC community. Ed currently serves on the Lions Club Board of Directors and on the Chamber of Commerce Executive Board as Treasurer, a position he has held for the last 3 years.

Ed is happily married to his wife and best friend of 40 years, Sandi, and they are extremely proud of their three children, Jim, Andrew and Katie.

Kevin Mulry

Kevin Mulry is a litigation partner at Farrell Fritz, P.C. in Uniondale, where he handles commercial and health law litigation and government litigation and investigations. Prior to joining Farrell Fritz, he served for fifteen years as an Assistant United States Attorney in the Civil Division of the U.S. Attorney's Office for the Eastern District of New York. From 2005 through 2010, he was Principal Deputy Chief of the Civil Division, with supervisory responsibility for the office's affirmative civil litigation, including health care fraud, mortgage and government procurement fraud, civil rights, environmental litigation, civil racketeering and labor litigation, civil penalty actions, financial litigation and civil and criminal forfeiture. He was previously Chief of the Long Island Civil Division and Chief of Employment Litigation. In 2004, he received the Henry L. Stimson Medal from the Association of the Bar of the City of New York for outstanding service as an Assistant United States Attorney. He was a law clerk to the Honorable John E. Sprizzo, United States District Judge for the Southern District of New York, and was associated with Simpson Thacher & Bartlett in New York and Cahn, Wishod & Lamb in Melville.

Kevin has lived in Rockville Centre with his wife Jeanne and daughter Rosemary for over twenty years, where they have been actively involved in the community. Kevin is a member of the St. Agnes Pastoral Council and St. Agnes Fathers' Club, and is a former president of the St. Agnes School Board. He is a member of the board of directors of the Friends of Mercy Medical Center and the Nassau County Bar Association, and is secretary and board member for New Ground, a not for profit agency serving homeless families and veterans.

About Dinner in the Dark

The Rockville Centre Lions Club Dinner in the Dark is designed to give each guest an opportunity, in a controlled setting, to experience the everyday challenges faced by those with visual impairment. The Rockville Centre Lions Club hopes that their guests will leave with a better understanding of these challenges. This unique experience promises to leave you with lasting memories. Your donation to the Dinner in the Dark will benefit Lions Charities.
