THE WOODLANDS, TX - Caffe di Fiore recently held their inaugural Guacamole Bowl recipe contest where numerous local participants created their own guacamole recipe vying for the opportunity to win a Super Bowl Party for 8. A panel of local celebrity judges were on hand for the event and hands down selected local resident Amos McDonald, BBVA Compass Bank, as this year's winner. On hand was Cleverley Stone who hosted a live remote broadcast and featured Amos McDonald on the radio to talk about his winning recipe. Celebrity judges included: Cleverley Stone, CBS Sports Radio; Michelle Merhar, Fox 26 Traffic Anchor; Melissa Rascon, Executive Director Oman, Berry & Associates; Terry McBurney, Principal Republic Payment Systems; Nick Wolda, President of The Woodlands CVB and Ryan Gable, Montgomery County Constable Precinct 3. Super Bowl Sunday is Feb 8 and Caffe di Fiore will have a catered dinner for 8 for winner Amos McDonald. "We thank everyone for coming out to support our Guacamole Bowl," Arturo Calderon said, co-owner of Caffe di Fiore with wife Lucy. "We had a fantastic turn out and everyone made it such a fun time. We look forward to hosting this again next year." Arturo and his wife Lucy and daughter Regina were featured recently on Fox 26 News and on Great Day Houston as being one of the best traditional, authentic Mexican cuisine restaurants.
