Private Events (daytime parties) Frequently Asked Questions

Thank you for considering allowing us to host your event! In an effort to provide you with as much information as possible so that you can make an informed decision in choosing a venue that meets your needs and expectations, we ask that you read and acknowledge the following:

How do I book a private event?

We require a $50 deposit and signed copy of this contract to book a private event. Both can be done online.

We book all of our events through email. Please fill out the Contact Information form found in the Private Events section of our website to get started. Once we have received your information, we will email you to discuss dates and help with any questions.

If you decide that you would like to book, please reply to our email with a signed contract (or acknowledgement of having read the contract) and submit your $50 deposit (payable through our website).

We will then mark your date as “Booked” on our calendar and email you to confirm.

We will call you the Tuesday before the event for your menu selections and final minimum head count. Unfortunately, we cannot hold multiple dates.

Your event should not be considered booked until you have received an email confirmation stating that it is booked.

When can we stop by the restaurant to discuss our event in person?

All discussion regarding your event will take place via email until we call you on the Tuesday before your event. This is to ensure that we can get back to you as quickly as possible and eliminate the possibility of missed messages and confusion stemming from discussing your event over the phone or in person with multiple people who may give conflicting answers to questions and concerns.

You are welcome to stop by any time after 5pm Tuesday-Sunday to see the space if you are not familiar with the restaurant. The restaurant will not be set up in the same way that it would for a private event. We are always happy to answer any questions via email.

Do you require that we meet a minimum number of guests?

No! We ask that all private events meet the minimum dollar amount of $850 before tax and gratuity.

When do we meet in person to discuss our menu and head count?

We don't meet in person to discuss your menu selections and head count; we call you the Tuesday before your event.

When do you require final payment and what forms of payment do you accept?

We require full payment on the day of your event, typically at the end of the party. We accept cash or check.

What is your gratuity/tax rate?

All private events are charged 20% gratuity and the standard NY state sales tax of 8.625%

Are we allowed to decorate?

Yes, you are welcome to bring in any decorations that you would like as long as they will not cause permanent damage to any walls or fixtures.

Please do not bring confetti or balloons filled with confetti. You will find that we do have a few hidden hooks and nails to accommodate most banners or baby/bridal shower "clothes lines".

You will have access to the restaurant from 11:15 until 3:45 on the day of your event.

This includes time allotted for set up, guest arrival and departure, and break down.

If you feel that you may need more time to set up and remove your decorations, you may need to adjust your party time accordingly.

What time are we able to enter the restaurant on the morning of our event to decorate?

You will have access to the restaurant from 11:15 until 3:45 on the day of your event.

This includes time for set up/ break down, and guest arrival/ departure.

You are welcome to drop off any wine or decorations that you would like any time after 1pm Tuesday-Friday during the week of your event.

This way you do not need to worry about loading and unloading everything that morning, and we can keep your white wine chilled!

How will the tables be set up?

Our main dining room currently seats up to 60 guests.

There will be 3 to 5 rectangular tables as well as an area for gifts. We recommend 2 centerpieces per table. The tables will be set with white linens. All private events are set up in our main dining room, we cannot offer use of our smaller front room or patio for private events.

May we bring a cake? May we set up a candy/desserts table?

Yes, you may bring a cake.

We also offer the option to provide a simple sheet cake at no cost to you.

If you would prefer not to have a cake, we also offer a choice of two desserts from our regular dessert menu.

If you would like to bring your own cake AND select dessert from our dessert menu there will be a fee of $2pp++.

Depending on the size of your party you may have room for a candy/desserts table.

If you are interested in either of these, and it is determined that you will have extra space to accommodate it, there will be an additional fee of $2pp++ to bring in your own candy/desserts

Are we allowed to bring our own wine/beer/liquor/fruit juice?

We always welcome you to bring, open, and serve your own wine or sparkling wine.

We do provide wine glasses.

We do not allow outside beer, liquor, punch, or fruit juice but we do have all of these things available for purchase.

Can we run a bar tab for drinks?

The open bar option includes a bartender but may not be appropriate for all events.

If you would prefer not to offer open bar, we can bring in a bartender for a flat fee of $140 plus bar tab. Otherwise there will not be a bar tender on staff.

Will there be other guests in the restaurant during my party?

No. All daytime parties run from 12-3:30, before we open for dinner service, and are set up in our main dining room.

Can we start our party before or after 12pm?

We cannot start a party before 12pm.

We usually cannot start a party after 12pm because need the room back by 3:30 for all daytime parties. If you believe that you will not need the full 3 hours and 30 min for your party, please contact us and we can discuss your event to determine whether it would be possible to change the start time.

Can you accommodate a small, simple, wedding reception during the afternoon?

No, we cannot accommodate a wedding reception in the time allotted for an afternoon party.
