Review from Zagat 2011/2012

Admirers adore this "super-relaxed" "rare find" in St. James, where "outstanding" chef-owner Eric Lomando crafts "awesome" French bistro dishes (including "unique" seafood specials) with "novel twists and turns"; it's a touch "less crowded" now that it's in "the old Mirabelle space", and the staff provides "helpful" service, plus it's a "bargain with BYO and no corkage charge"; P.S. cash-only and "reservations are a must", so "plan in advance."
